Everyone Has to Deal with Conflict

Conflict is normal and inevitable — whether in the home, school, community, church or workplace. Leaders in all walks of life often have a responsibility to help others work through their conflicts.

The Mediation Skills Training Institute presented by the Lombard Mennonite Peace Center (LMPC) is designed to equip church leaders with the skills necessary to deal effectively with interpersonal, congregational, and other forms of group conflict. The five-day institute also includes a component on congregational mediation and consultation, placed within the context of family systems theory.

Although focused primarily on the church setting, the skills learned are directly transferable to other settings. Thus managers in business, attorneys, experienced mediators and others in leadership will be enriched by the training as well.

Who Will Benefit

- ♦ PASTORS and INTERIM PASTORS of all denominations — to enhance skills for managing conflict in the church.
- ♦ JUDICATORY LEADERS — Bishops and Synod Staff; Area Ministers and Regional Staff; District Superintendents; Presbytery, Conference, and Diocesan Staff — to assist pastors and congregations in handling conflicts.
- ♦ DENOMINATIONAL OFFICIALS and CHURCH CONSULTANTS — to bring healing in the midst of divisive church fights.
- ♦ LAY LEADERS and MUTUAL MINISTRY COMMITTEE MEMBERS — to receive valuable leadership training to benefit the church, while also gaining insight for peaceful conflict transformation in the home.
- ♦ ADMINISTRATORS — to introduce conflict transformation to the organizations they oversee.
- ♦ MANAGERS and SUPERVISORS — to help workers diminish conflict and enhance productivity.
- ♦ COLLEGE and SEMINARY STUDENTS — to gain hands-on skills training not typically offered in regular classes.
- ♦ ATTORNEYS — to gain skills in alternative dispute resolution procedures.
- ♦ COMMUNITY MEDIATION CENTER STAFF and VOLUNTEERS — to acquire additional skills in a transformational model of mediation for working with both individuals and groups.

*"All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation."
- 2 Corinthians 5:18*
